

Act of 1974 (12 U.S.C. 2601 et seq.) shall include any service rendered in connection with a loan or extension of credit insured by the Federal Housing Administration for the purchase of a manufactured home.

“(d) UNFAIR AND DECEPTIVE PRACTICES.—In connection with the purchase of a manufactured home financed with a loan or extension of credit insured by the Federal Housing Administration under this title, the Secretary shall prohibit acts or practices in connection with loans or extensions of credit that the Secretary finds to be unfair, deceptive, or otherwise not in the interests of the borrower.”.

SEC. 210. LEASEHOLD REQUIREMENTS.

Subsection (b) of section 2 of the National Housing Act (12 U.S.C. 1703(b)), as amended by the preceding provisions of this Act, is further amended by adding at the end the following new paragraph:

“(11) LEASEHOLD REQUIREMENTS.—No insurance shall be granted under this section to any such financial institution with respect to any obligation representing any such loan, advance of credit, or purchase by it, made for the purposes of financing a manufactured home which is intended to be situated in a manufactured home community pursuant to a lease, unless such lease—

“(A) expires not less than 3 years after the origination date of the obligation;

“(B) is renewable upon the expiration of the original 3 year term by successive 1 year terms; and

“(C) requires the lessor to provide the lessee written notice of termination of the lease not less than 180 days prior to the expiration of the current lease term in the event the lessee is required to move due to the closing of the manufactured home community, and further provides that failure to provide such notice to the mortgagor in a timely manner will cause the lease term, at its expiration, to automatically renew for an additional 1 year term.”.

Mr. REID. Madam President, I move to reconsider the vote and move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

UNANIMOUS-CONSENT AGREEMENT—H.R. 1585

Mr. REID. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that upon disposition, which it has been disposed of, this bill, S. 2338, the Senate proceed to the conference report to accompany H.R. 1585, the most important Department of Defense authorization bill; that it be considered under a limitation of 60 minutes for debate with respect to the conference report, with the time equally divided and controlled between the chairman and ranking member of the Armed Services Committee; that upon the use of yielding back of time, the Senate proceed to vote on adoption of the conference report; that upon adoption of the conference report, the Senate proceed to H. Con. Res. 269, a correcting resolution; that the concurrent resolution be considered, agreed to and the motion to reconsider be laid on the table; all the above occurring without intervening action or debate.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

Mr. REID. Madam President, we are going to then move and complete work today on the farm bill. We hope the two managers can work through whatever minor problems exist. The sooner people determine what they want to do, the more quickly we can dispose of the bill.

As I indicated earlier, we are going to file cloture this evening, this afternoon, on the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act. It is an extremely important piece of legislation. There are some strong feelings on both sides of the issue. We are going to come in around 11 o'clock on Monday morning. There will be a vote around noon on Monday. The managers of this bill, this important bill, should be ready to start legislating Monday afternoon. We do not have a lot of time.

This is an important piece of legislation. There are a significant number of amendments people want to offer. A week from Tuesday is Christmas. So I would hope we can work our way through this. We hope there are some other issues we can complete. Late in the session like this, they have to be agreed upon.

Senator MCCONNELL and I have had a number of conversations the last couple of days on the way we are going to end the session regarding funding, other issues relating to funding. The one good thing is both my office and his office have kept quiet about it. As a result of that, things are moving fairly quietly.

That is the way we want it. No one will be surprised about anything. Everyone will know exactly what is going to happen. At this stage, it appears the House will take up the spending matter, the omnibus, on Monday. They will send it to us on Tuesday. That is the glidepath we have now. The path we hope is a smooth one, but in this world we live in, you never know, but it is looking pretty good.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Republican leader.

Mr. MCCONNELL. Madam President, let me briefly add, I am hoping there will not be a need for this hour of debate on the Defense conference report. I think we all know what is in it at this point. Hopefully, we can yield back time. There are a number of Members who have travel plans. If we can expedite the consideration of the remaining issues, it would be appreciated by a great many of our Members.

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE AP- PROPRIATIONS ACT—CONFER- ENCE REPORT

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate will proceed to the consideration of the conference report to accompany H.R. 1585. The report will be stated.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

The committee of conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendment of the Senate to the bill (H.R. 1585), to authorize appropriations for fiscal year 2008 for military activities of the Department of Defense, and for other purposes, having met, have agreed that the House recede from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate and agree to the same with an amendment and the Senate agree to the same, signed by a majority of the conferees on the part of both Houses.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order there are 60 minutes of debate equally divided.

Mr. LEVIN. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the following named staff members of the Committee on Armed Services be granted the privilege of the floor at all times during consideration of and a vote relating to this conference report.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

Borawski, June M.; Brewer, Leah C.; Bryan, Joseph M.; Caniano, William M.; Carrillo, Pablo E.; Clark, Jonathan D.; Cohen, Ilona R.; Collins, David G.; Cork, Fletcher L.; Cowart, Christine E.; Cox, Jr., Daniel J.; Creedon, Madelyn R.; Cronin, Kevin A.; DeBobs, Richard D.; Dickinson, Marie Fabrizio; Eisen, Gabriella; Farkas, Evelyn N.; Fieldhouse, Richard W.; Forbes, Diana Tabler; Greene, Creighton;

Howard, Gary J.; Hutton, IV, Paul C.; Jacobson, Mark R.; Kiley, Gregory T.; Kingston, Jessica L.; Kostiw, Michael V.; Kuiken, Michael J.; Leeling, Gerald J.; Levine, Peter K.; Maurer, Derek J.; McConnell, Thomas K.; McCord, Michael J.; Monahan, William G.P.; Morriss, David M.; Niemeyer, Lucian L.; Noblet, Michael J.; Parker, Bryan D.; Pasha, Ali Z.; Paul, Christopher J.; Pearson, Cindy; Pollock, David;

Quirk, V. John H.; Rubin, Benjamin L.; Rusten, Lynn F.; Sebold, Brian F.; Seraphin, Arun A.; Smith, Travis E.; Soofer, Robert M.; Stackley, Sean G.; Svinicki, Kristine L.; Sutey, William K.; Wagner, Mary Louise; Walsh, Richard F.; Wells, Breon N.; White, Dana W.;

Mr. WARNER. If the chairman would yield for a minute, I would invite my colleagues on this side of the aisle on the Armed Services Committee to indicate to me if they desire to speak. You have heard the Republican leader urge that we move along as quickly as possible. But I will try to accommodate all those who wish to speak within the 30 minutes allocated on this side.

Mr. LEVIN. Madam President, I make the same request for Senators on this side of the aisle. If they wish to speak during this brief period, let us know. We will try to fit in as many as possible.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Michigan is recognized.

Mr. LEVIN. Madam President, I urge the adoption of this conference report for the Defense Department. Every year since 1961 there has been a Defense authorization bill enacted. This year conferees and staff have worked extraordinarily hard, with bipartisan cooperation, and we are proud to be keeping up our four-and-one-half decades-long tradition with this conference report.

The great men and women of our Armed Forces are making the most difficult sacrifices. They are putting their
